CAREER OPPORTUNITIES - All data listed below incorporate Central Texas jobs and entry wages found on <http://www.texaswages.com/WDAWages>

Traditionally, a bachelor's degree in general studies is designed for the student who has completed some college coursework in the past but took a break and is now interested in finishing a degree in order to advance a career or feel a sense of achievement. Some programs require prior college enrollment for admission.

First-time undergraduate students who know the career path they would like to follow should select a college major relevant to that career. However, students may be able to find some careers where a bachelor's degree in general studies is helpful. Below are job opportunities for graduates with a bachelor's degree in general studies:

Sales Agent - $18,519

Customer Service Representative - $18,806
